

Are you a storyteller?

Roleplayer?

Game Master?

Check out the Diamond Pantheon.

Reinforce the universe with mighty threads!

The Diamond Pantheon is a forum-based, shared multiverse, living campaign. It's like an honors society for storytellers.

During the Month of Meddle, new potential players are invited to try out the Pantheon's style in an October-only promotion.

The Serpent at the center of the universe has cracked the Diamond of Existence, causing the Diamond itself to shiver into pieces. The different planets, worlds, and universes are held together only by tenuous connections.

The gods invite you to step into the Labyrinth to collect mighty monsters, then send them to plague the creative worlds of your friends!

It's the easiest way to get involved in what could be among the greatest projects in the Multiverse.

The Pantheon is genre and rules system neutral. It's easy to learn. It doesn't matter if you're an author, a graphic novelist, a Dungeon Master, or a roleplayer; there's a place in the Pantheon for you.

Starting October 1st – The Month of Meddle.
